November 2024

Dublin Community Church—United Church of Christ

The Opportunities that Never End

Recently, at the start of Sunday morning worship, I looked down at my notes and realized I quite possibly had the longest list of announcements I've ever had in all the years I have served DCC! As Rev Becky was on vacation that day, I tried to very quickly go through the announcements, while reminding people that further details, and further opportunities, could be found in the bulletin. And so, to state the obvious, there is a LOT going on at Dublin Community Church!! And that is a very good thing!

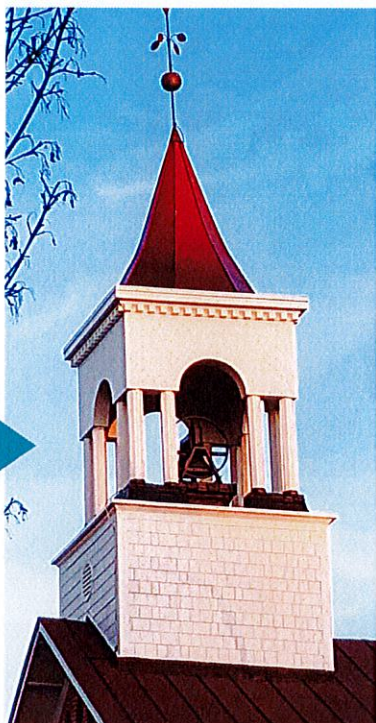

The Stewardship Committee, over these past two months, has used feedback from all of you to remind us of all the ways in which DCC is a good place to be. In addition to the many activities – the recent Blessing of the Animals, the upcoming Volunteer Luncheon, Creativity Circle event, Interfaith Thanks and Giving Service, and the Children's Christmas Pageant, to name just a few – this is also the time of year when we seek to fill all the DCC committees for the upcoming year. Our eleven committees were completely full for 2024, and we are striving for 100% participation again in 2025. There really is no way to sufficiently express all the positive aspects of serving on a committee. Serving is one way to feel deeply connected to DCC. It not only contributes to the important work we do as a community of faith, but it is also a fantastic way to truly get to know others. The friendships and camaraderie are spectacular.

Our eleven committees at DCC, in alphabetical order, are: Buildings & Grounds, Christian Education, Fellowship, Finance, Growth & Rolls, Mission, Music, Pastoral Care, Personnel, Stewardship, and Worship. In addition to these eleven, some of the "Sub-committees" include the Kitchen Committee, the Green Team, Rummage, and the Production Team who run our sound and livestream during worship. There are also openings to serve on the DCC Foundation. If you want to know more about any of these opportunities, please reach out to Rev. Becky or me. We would be happy to fill you in!

And so, in the coming weeks, I hope you will prayerfully consider how you might get involved at DCC. Don't be surprised if you receive a phone call inviting you to join a committee. For the many of you who are already serving, and for those who have already committed to joining a committee, I say a heartfelt thank you!! Dublin Community Church is truly a good place to be!!

Giving Thanks

The colors change. The leaves fall. We turn back the clocks. Grocery aisles are full of stuffing mix and cranberry sauce. Thanksgiving season is upon us!

As I reflect on recent months of our shared life together at Dublin Community Church, there is so much for which I am grateful. In particular, we are just completing our annual stewardship pledge campaign. Throughout the month of October, we have reflected on how DCC is a good place to be connecting, growing, serving, and giving. I am so thankful for the generous hearts of the people of this congregation. Thank you for the ways you support the church's ongoing ministries through offering your time, talents, and monetary gifts. It is only because of your gifts that Dublin Community Church can carry out its mission. Leading joyful and inspirational worship, growing disciples through educational programs for people of all ages, providing space for community partners who are committed to healing and recovery, all of the ministries that touch the lives of our families, friends, and wider community—all of them are possible because of what you share so generously.

On a more personal note, Adrian and I also want to take this space to let you know again how grateful we are to all of you at DCC who continue to support us with prayers and acts of loving kindness as we navigate the unknown path of Adrian's health journey. When I try to come up with words adequate enough to express the gratitude we have in our hearts for each of you, I come up short every time. So, I am left with just "Thank you." I can never say it enough. For every prayer spoken, for every card sent, for every call or visit, for every offer of help, for every meal or service provided, for every time you have shared your concern for us or inquired about our well-being, for all the ways you walk this road with us, THANK YOU.

Thank you for being people who truly live out your love in so many diverse and beautiful ways. Know that you are appreciated and that you make all the difference.

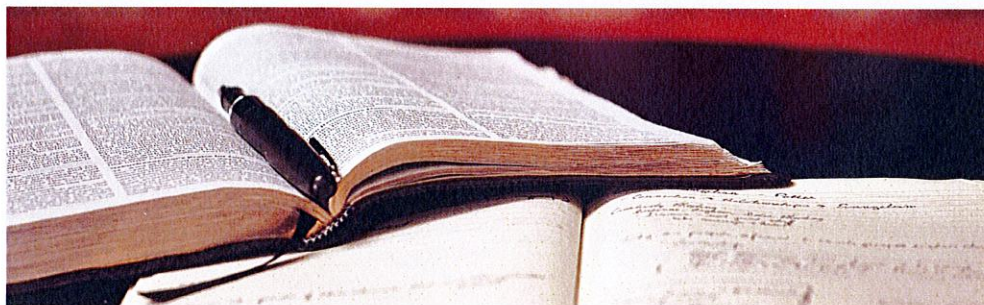

Peace and blessings always,

Rev. Becky

Saturday Morning Men's Fellowship – November Update

We will meet in November on 11/2 and 11/16 to continue our discussions about Brian McLaren's book Do I Stay Christian?. Hope you can join us!

October Moderator Moment

There are several updates from the council. I'll start with some really exciting news!

- A special thank you to the McAdow Family Foundation for a generous gift, to DCC, in Honor of Carol McAdow who held a special place in her heart for this community. The gift is provided to support the upcoming refresh projects and to replace the piano in the chapel as well as a generous gift to the DCC Foundation to support future Spiritual Formation grants. These gifts will support the missions of DCC-UCC for years to come.
- The music and pastoral care committees will be hosting a Christmas caroling event for our shut-ins in Dec. - look for details to come.
- Please sign up for the 2nd Annual Helping Hands Luncheon in the Narthex. The event will include a meal and is to show appreciation for all of the volunteers of DCC
- The 2025 committee member planning is upon us. If you have interests in joining a committee next year, please reach out to any minister or existing committee member, including me. You can also fill out the time and talents survey which has a summary of all the committees.
- Finally, it is pledge season. Please fill out a pledge form to help provide the council with the critical information for the 2025 general operating budget. The budget must be balanced and a large portion of the budget comes directly from you and your pledges. The general operating budget includes donations to Our Church's Wider Mission (OCWM), the building utilities and maintenance, staff salaries, cleaning and trash removal, committee budgets, etc. The church renovation projects have been funded through generous 1 time donations and are not a part of the general operating budget.
- Many have asked about the mortgage payoff and how it will impact the annual budget. The last few years have required withdrawals from the council contingency fund, or rainy day fund, to achieve a balanced budget. The amount withdrawn is very similar to the yearly mortgage payment which we no longer have! With that said, we have a strong prospect of funding the general operating budget through pledges and rental fees (pre-school, weddings, etc.) without pulling from the council contingency fund. If anyone has questions regarding pledging or the budget, please look for myself or a member of the finance committee and we would gladly answer your questions.

Thank you for your time!

-Jacob Coburn

THANK YOU TIMES TWO!

In Sunday worship last month I told the story that when I was 10 years old I chose to financially support the church. My Grandma B was the one behind that story. Her deep love for me and patient nurturing of my faith encouraged and shaped my decision to give to the church. She would often season our one-on-one conversations with short quotes from the Bible. For example – if I was tired and complaining that I didn't want to finish something I promised to do, she might say "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." While the cookie she gave me sweetened my work ethic that day, it was the idea of Christ working in and through me that motivated my commitment to be both faithful and generous in all aspects of my life.

Another of Grandma B's favorite Bible quotes was "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances..." This one reminds me of what she taught her grandchildren: to "say thank you times two." Say thank you for the gift given and give thanks to God for the giver. In the same way, my mother, Lois, taught us to "say 'thank you' twice as often as you say 'please.'"

On behalf of the stewardship committee, our church council, and our church staff, I say thank you, and thank you again, for who you are as faithful members and friends of our congregation, for the many ways you lead, serve and participate in our life together, and for your contributions – of time, talent and money – to support and fulfill the missions, ministries, programs, facilities and staff of Dublin Community Church. I'm grateful to you for your generous gifts – and I give thanks to God for you!

We will all be asked in each new year to continue serving and supporting our congregation. I believe that is how we are able to "do all things together through Christ who strengthens" us. And that is why we can confidently "give thanks in all circumstances" of our life together.

Again, thank you for your pledge of financial support for 2025! And I give thanks to God for who you are and for the many ways you generously and faithfully share yourself!

Eric Williams, Chair

2024 Stewardship Committee

Livestreaming Volunteer Opportunity

We're on the lookout for volunteers who are eager to learn how to operate the live streaming software for our church services. If you're familiar with using Microsoft Windows, you can easily pick up this skill in just one or two quick training sessions! The directions on how to livestream have been slimmed down over the past couple of years, making it easier than ever before to learn. This vital role helps us stay connected with congregants who can't physically attend church, due to health issues, travel or being homebound. It has also been a great way to bring others into our church from home and has led to the addition of new members to our congregation. Join us in this exciting opportunity to make a meaningful impact!

Well Done, Good and Faithful Servants!

- Our organized and low-priced merchandise appealed to many, many satisfied customers, including those with limited budgets.
- Fellowship among our volunteers abounded!
- Leftover donations rippled out into the community benefitting local charities and individuals.

Thanks to all who contributed treasures, time, and loving efforts!

Mark your calendars.
