Easter Eggs

Many years ago, when my kids were young, one of the ways we decorated for Easter was to hang colorful plastic Easter eggs in a tree in front of our house. Each year we would dig out a tub of Easter decorations, pull out the plastic eggs which were rigged with thin pieces of string, and hang them out front. It was a yearly tradition.

One spring, however, shortly after we had decorated the tree with the eggs, someone rang my front doorbell. When I went to the door, my next-door neighbor was standing there. And in her hands were broken plastic eggs – the eggs that previously had been hanging in the tree. And immediately my neighbor began to apologize in earnest. She was the mother of twin sons, close to the age of my own children, and for some reason her sons decided that it would be a fun game to knock the eggs out of the tree. And in doing so, they had broken all of the eggs.

In my mind, the incident was nothing more than kids being kids, and I assured my neighbor that it really was no big deal. But what made her apology so compelling was the fact that my neighbors were Muslim. And knowing that eggs were part of our Christian celebration of Easter, what my neighbor feared was that her children had destroyed something I saw as sacred. I continued to reassure her that it really was OK, but I will never forget her sincere remorse at not wanting to be disrespectful.

We are in a time of year that is indeed very sacred for Christians. We have been journeying together during this season of Lent as Jesus makes his way towards the cross. We will remember Jesus' final meal with his disciples when we gather on Holy Thursday. And we will walk alongside Jesus as we carry a cross through the streets of Dublin on Good Friday. And then we will celebrate with joy Jesus' resurrection on Easter Sunday.

But in all these sacred moments I am mindful that this time of year is also sacred for our Muslim and our Jewish friends in their faith traditions. And I am reminded of my Muslim neighbor all those years ago, whose kindness was affirmation that our similarities far outweigh our differences. And I am grateful.

Wishing you all a blessed Easter.

- Shalom, Rev. Lisa Bowersock

Creativity Circle

Creativity Circle is a group of women who gather twice a month for the sole purpose of creating knit, crochet, and machine sewn items that are in turn donated to a variety of charities in the Columbus area. Knit and/or crochet blankets are donated to the Van Buren homeless center and/or the YWCA Family Center. Fleece blankets are hemmed and given to Star House, and a variety of baby items (blankets, hats, bibs, burp cloths) are taken to Gifts for Angels (a charity that provides baby items to mothers with little or no means). Both groups meet in the parlor on the second Sunday of the month from 3-5 p.m. and the last Wednesday of the month from 1-3 p.m. For more information, please contact Cindy Bitter at cbitter77@yahoo.com

Prayer Chain

Our Prayer Chain offers comfort and support in a thoughtful, confidential, manner. If you know of someone's need for prayers, contact our Prayer Chain through Karen Harget (karenharget@yahoo.com or 614-891-8303).

WORKING IN THE QUIET

Liturgically speaking, Holy Week is the busiest time of the church year. In addition to our regular Palm Sunday service, Holy Week still includes our Wednesday Lenten study, plus our traditional Maundy Thursday service and the CrossWalk on Good Friday, which concludes with a community worship service in our Gladden Chapel. Of course, the Holy Week journey culminates in our rejoicing together on Easter Sunday, first with the Sunrise Service, and then our 10:00AM Easter Service. That's six separate opportunities to gather and worship together during that week alone!

There is one more celebration that some Christian churches highlight that many congregations in our own tradition gloss over—the observance of Holy Saturday, also known as Easter Vigil. It's easy to dismiss Saturday of Holy Week. After all, nothing much seems to have happened that day. After a whirlwind week beginning with Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, following with the Last Supper and arrest on Maundy Thursday and, finally, the crucifixion on Friday, there doesn't seem to be anything special to commemorate on Holy Saturday. Nothing happened. Jesus spent the whole day locked up in the tomb.

For those first disciples, it was likely a quiet day. They, too, were locked inside. Paralyzed by grief and fear, I imagine they sat in the stillness, staring at one another through their tears and finding very little to say. It was also a Sabbath day. Things had finished in a hurry on Friday, as Jesus' followers rushed to put his lifeless body into the tomb before the holy day began at sunset. The women had not yet finished preparing the body, and now they would have to wait until Sunday morning. I wonder if any of them recalled his words, promising that the Son of Man would rise up. Did any of them dare to hope?

Two thousand years later, we know the rest of the story. We know that in the stillness of that Sabbath day long ago, God was still at work preparing the greatest revelation of power and love the world has ever known. For us, Holy Saturday is meant to be a time of watchful anticipation. As we sit in the quiet, we await the morning, knowing the gift that comes with resurrection. In the stillness, we prepare our hearts for the great new day that is coming.

One of the great Easter hymns, "Christ Arose!," was penned by Robert Lowry. The hymn begins, "Low in the grave he lay—Jesus my Savior, waiting the coming day—Jesus my Lord!" It is only after the stillness of the tomb that we come to see the risen Christ. But God is not idle; God is working in the quiet.

In a time when there is so much trouble and distress in the world, it hardly seems appropriate to call for God's people to be contemplatively quiet. Surely, what the world needs right now is action! While that may be true, it is still important to find Sabbath moments, times of quiet when we can lean into the Great Mystery. Find those spaces. Trust that God is not idle in those moments, but rather is beginning the work of resurrection.

Peace and blessings,

Rev. Becky

SPRING RUMMAGE SALE

RUMMAGE IS THE ULTIMATE REUSING, RECYCLING, AND REPURPOSING

The Dublin Community Church semi-annual rummage sales are some of the truest ways to be GREEN! Each year, we save hundreds of pounds of unwanted and unused items from being sent to the landfills. Our shoppers give them new lives and new purposes. Thanks to each of you who donate AND buy!

Our SPRING RUMMAGE Sale will be Saturday, May 3rd from 9:00am to 2:00pm. Early shoppers can pay $10/person to come in early at 8:00am. We will begin accepting donations on Saturday, April 26th through Thursday, May 1st. Watch for further details on the times each day for drop-offs at the church. We may be able to again offer donation pick-ups at your homes, but there will be re-strictions. Call the church office at 614-889-1026 to schedule.

Large items must be on the first floor or in a garage. Please, no heavy exercise equipment, most entertainment centers, TVs that don't work (flat screen only) or computers/electronics that are no longer working. No mattresses or springs. No encyclopedias, large dictionaries, textbooks, or trade books. We reserve the right to refuse any donation. We are not trying to be ungrateful, but we have found the mentioned items just don't sell, they take up valuable display space, and we have often had to PAY to have them taken. All that being said, we are delighted to receive your used, and even new, treasures. Thank you.

We would be most appreciative if you would kindly post the rummage sale on your social media sites. The needed information, in addition to the church's name, address (81 W. Bridge St. Dublin 43017), and even phone number (614-889-1026) can be found in the bolded sentences above.

Most of our members look forward to each of our sales in May and in October (always the first Saturdays). Volunteering at the sale and helping to set up during the previous week is lots of fun and tiring. We thank those of you who have volunteered in the past and we encourage those of you who haven't, to volunteer for a first time. You won't regret it! Great way to meet church members and feel part of DCC.

Contact Kathy Blair to volunteer.

St. Patrick's Day Shenanigans at DCC

Check out the smiling faces from the morning of the 2025 Dublin St. Patrick's Parade! Wind and rain didn't stop the parade for our own Grand Leprechaun and Interfaith Outreach Coordinator Barb Anderson. DCC members had the best seats on the parade route as we handed out information about our church, welcomed people into our historic chapel and sold refreshments. Congratulations to Barb Anderson and thank you to all who volunteered that morning!

DUBLIN COMMUNITY CHURCH FOUNDATION 2025 GRANTS

Andy Jakes announced on March 16th the opening of the Foundation's grant application process for this year. This is the anniversary of the formation of the DCCF (March 17, 1978) to benefit the church and its wider mission.

Applications for grants that benefit our church's wider missions are available in the DCC office or online at the DCCF page of the DCCUCC.com site. Completed applications MUST be received in the office or online no later than April 30. The Foundation trustees will announce those who will receive a grant by the end of May. Grants, including their follow-up reports, must be submitted by November 1, 2025.

The DCCF will review all grant applications and make final recommendations to Church Council for their approval. All grants must be for projects that go beyond the scope of the church's annual operating budget to serve to enhance the church and its mission, not to sustain the annual budget.

There are restricted grants and unrestricted grants:

The Natalie Pederson Chard Memorial grant is restricted because it must benefit the women's programming of our church and the DCC music program. This year, these grants total $1,150.

The DCCF will present recommendations to Mary Ko for the Alexander James Ko Memorial grant. The amount for this grant is $2,600.

The new Carol McAdow Memorial grant's purpose is to broadly support spiritual formation. The amount for this year is $1900.

Other grants are unrestricted, meaning they simply must enhance the ministries of the church. The total budget for these unrestricted grants is $4300. There is an expectation that this amount of money may support more than one applicant.

Please consider ways you or your committee may want to tap into this wonderful resource that grows and grows from year to year. Why not donate to the Dublin Community Church Foundation right now? Be sure you specify that it is to the DCC FOUNDATION. Ask a trustee how you may donate using a credit card. Inspire others to give. Let us make a unified effort to grow the Foundation so we can offer a greater number of grants and have more funds to offer them. Feel free to contact any of the DCCF trustees: Tom Anderson, Kathy Blair, Andy Jakes, Matthew Kuck, Steph Mizer, Brian Redenshek, and Cheryl Yeack.
